Decision in Liquor Case.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 21.—The federal government reserves all the police power in connection with prosecuting those who violate the liquor laws that it possessed before statehood, according to a decision of the United States circuit court for the Eighth District in St. Paul in the case of Eugene Mosier of Osage county, who was convicted of selling liquor to an Indian.

Mosier rested his appeal on the claim that the Indian, becoming a citizen of the State of Oklahoma after the adoption of the constitution and the state passing a law making it an offense to sell liquor in Oklahoma, had the effect of annulling the authority of the Federal government to prosecute in police cases. The sentence of Mosier was upheld.

The court held that the enabling act specifically provided that nothing should be placed in the Oklahoma constitution which could be construed to limit or impair the rights of persons or property of Indian blood and that in granting statehood to Oklahoma congress reserved all police powers as far as applicable to Indians.

I. O. O. F. of Arkansas.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Oct. 21.—Pine Bluff is entertaining this week the annual grand lodge meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, together with the State Conventions of the Rebekahs and other auxiliary bodies. The gathering has attracted an attendance of more than 1,000 delegates and visitors from all parts of Arkansas.

W. E. Conger went to Tishomingo today to interview the dry goods merchants of that city.

ADA ASPHALT POPULAR AT KANSAS CITY

Oklahoma has such a vast storehouse of native asphalt that all the fervent imaginations of the world, from that of Edgar Allan Poe to Lord Byron, could not get anything like an adequate conception of its magnitude if fused together. The figures of the state geological survey give the amount at 35,000,000,000 tons. This, however, does not give anything like a practical working idea of just how much the amount is. Who knows how much this looks like if piled up in one big mass? When one tries to get a mental image of this stupendous quantity, his faculties become benumbed.

If every street of every city in the world were paved with Oklahoma asphalt, there would still be enough left to do the same job several times over.

If all the material had to be handled by the railroads at one time, the transportation agencies of the world could not handle the situation.

Putting aside the entirely impractical and impossible idea of getting anything like a mental image of the quantity produced and passing over to the quality, those acquainted with the subject state that the Oklahoma native asphalt cannot be surpassed anywhere. As a consequence the material is not only getting to be used locally, but shipments are now going out daily to distant cities and states, where the paving contracts call for the use of only the very best material. For instance, the present plans of Kansas City comprehend one of the finest boulevard systems in the world. The municipality is specializing on this feature, in seeking the country over for very best obtainable grade of asphalt, the contractors found that the native Oklahoma product tested out the best in existence. As a consequence the streets of that growing city are now being paved with the Oklahoma material, and the excellence of the finished thoroughfares is such as to raise the standard for that class of work in the entire country.

Hereafter the home product will feature in the paving operations of several of the very largest cities in the country, and the output will increase by leaps and bounds.

Possessing a quality of native asphalt, the magnitude of which could not be adequately portrayed by one of Poe's prose tales, the quality the best known and a production expense that is very moderate, that industry will enlist more and more capital each year—Oklahoman.

Dry Farmers in Convention.

Lethbridge, Alta., Oct. 21.—With delegates present from many parts of Canada and the United States, and from Australia and several of the countries of Europe and South America, the seventh International Dry Farming congress assembled here today for a session that will continue through the greater part of the week. In point of attendance and in the prominence of the scheduled speakers and the importance of the subjects to be discussed, the present congress promises to eclipse all previous gatherings held in the interest of the dry farming movement.

Among those who have accepted invitations to address the congress are Martin Burrell, the Canadian minister of agriculture; James Wilson, secretary of agriculture of the United States; James J. Hill, the St. Paul railway magnate; Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway; Dr. L. H. Bailey, of Cornell University, and Zollen Szilas, president of the Hungarian National Agricultural Union.

Women will have an important part in the congress. During the week daily sessions will be held by the International congress of Farm Women and the rural home section of the International Dry Farming congress.

TENNESSEE Odd Fellows Gather.

Clarksville, Tenn., Oct. 21.—From all parts of Tennessee, members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows are arriving in Clarksville to participate in the annual meetings of the grand encampment and the grand lodge. The former will convene tomorrow and the grand lodge will meet on Wednesday. The Rebekahs, the women's auxiliary of the order, will be in session from Tuesday until Friday.

BOOTLEGGERS DRAW PENITENTIARY SENTENCES

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 19.—The first penitentiary sentences for introducing liquor into eastern Oklahoma since the recent decision of the United States supreme court in the Webb case, were meted out here today when Judge R. E. Campbell in the United States court sentenced Chas. Quinn of Marietta, John Archard of Madill and Henry Smith of Ardmore to the penitentiary at Leavenworth for one year and one day each. All three men were convicted by a federal jury of introducing whiskey. In passing on the three men Judge Campbell said that their cases were aggravated for the evidence showed that they had introduced liquor for the purpose of selling it, and it was offenses of this kind that the court would look into more closely. Seven other men indicted for introducing were convicted and given jail sentences. There were but three acquittals in all the cases tried and in these cases the evidence was insufficient to convict the defendants proving clearly that they were innocent purchasers. In charging the jury Judge Campbell practically held that possession was sufficient evidence to convict on the introducing charge and that it was not incumbent upon the government to prove actual shipment. This was a matter for the defense to prove and unless the defendant could actually show who it was who carried the whiskey in, then a conviction must follow. The criminal term came to a close today and Assistant District Attorney Frank Lee, who has been conducting the cases for the government returned to Muskogee this afternoon. The court did not pass on the mooted question as to whether or not liquor shipped from Kansas or Missouri to western Oklahoma and passing through eastern Oklahoma, could be held and the conveyances used in transporting the stuff libeled. The point at issue is an exceedingly close one and it will be passed on in Muskogee in November.

WEEK OF FAIR WEATHER IN PROSPECT.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Fair weather will prevail over much of the country during the next several days, according to the weekly bulletin issued tonight by the Weather Bureau. Local rains, however, are likely to occur in Eastern States tonight or tomorrow.

The next general storm to cross the country will appear in the Far West about Thursday, prevail over the Middle West Friday or Saturday and the Eastern States at the end of the week. This will be preceded by rising temperature, be attended by rains on the Pacific Coast and in the Southern States and by rains and snows in the northern districts from the Rocky Mountains eastward. It will be followed by a change to the coldest weather of the season, the cold wave making its appearance in the Northwest Saturday or Sunday.

"There are no indications at present of a disturbance in the West Indies."

SOONERS INFILCT CRUSHING DEFEAT ON LONGHORNS

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 21.—Before an enthusiastic crowd, of perhaps 6,000 people, mostly Texas enthusiasts, the Oklahoma football team, for the third successive time, wrested the football honors from the Longhorns and by so doing put in a very strong bid for the championship of the Southwest. Score: Oklahoma 21, Texas 6.

For the past several seasons the championship has been claimed by either Oklahoma, Texas or Texas A. & M., and with Texas out of the way, the Sooners now have only Texas A. & M. between them and the coveted goal.

The conditions for the game were perfect. The day was clear and bright; no high sky nettled the players covering punts; a light wind blew across the field in a southeasterly direction, and the field itself was in ideal condition, being softened just enough by the rains of the past few days.

MILLS WILL CLOSE IN HONOR OF HERO

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 19.—For the first time in history, the steel mills of Gary will be idle tomorrow. All stores will be closed. There will be no crowds in the theaters and concert halls.

In every church there will be said a prayer for the soul of a crippled newsboy. Every minister will speak of the great deed of heroism. Thousands of people will try to catch a last glimpse of the face of the boy who died with a happy smile on his face and his lips. The funeral of Billy Rugh will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Billy Rugh is not to be forgotten. All that Gary, Ind., can do, that thousands of friends can do, to perpetuate the heroism of the newsboy who gave his life that a young woman might live will be done.

A memorial room in the Gary General Hospital, a monument in the city's park and a memorial tablet, which have been suggested as appropriate means of honoring the memory of Rugh, will be provided.

JACK JOHNSON'S BOND

FIXED AT $1,500

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Charged with the abduction of a white girl, Jack Johnson, the negro champion pugilist, was arraigned in municipal court today. His bond was increased from $800 to $1,500 and the case continued until October 29.

Johnson became furious when counsel for Mrs. F. Cameron Balconnet, mother of the 19-year old girl, demanded that his bond be increased.

"I don't see why Johnson should be shown any more partiality than any other defendant charged with a similar crime," said Charles Erbstein the woman's attorney.

"I don't think it's necessary to increase the bond," Johnson told the court. "I am a responsible citizen. I have a business worth $60,000."

"It may be worth that to you," flushed back Erbstein, "but it's illegal and you ought to be put out of business." "All right, Mr. Mayor," commented Johnson.

"If I was mayor of Chicago you wouldn't be in business in three days," answered the attorney.

After considerable wrangling Judge Hopkins placed the bond at $1,500, the usual amount in abduction cases. Then Johnson asked permission to write a check to cover the increase.

"No checks go with me," asserted the attorney.

"All right, it will be cash then," shouted Johnson, spelling out the word.

A professional bondsman posted a cash bond for the negro.

Two agents of the government department of justice were in court.

When the pugilist stopped his automobile in front of a downtown bank today such a crowd gathered that police were called.

Mutterings against the fighter were heard but there was no open demonstration. A few negroes cried: "Hurrah for Johnson."

Johnson paid no attention to the crowd but guided his car carefully between the two lines of men. Once at the throng's edge, he drove away quickly.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued today by Federal Commissioner Foote, who is held under $25,000 bonds.

The next general storm to cross the country will appear in the Far West about Thursday, prevail over the Middle West Friday or Saturday and the Eastern States at the end of the week. This will be preceded by rising temperature, be attended by rains on the Pacific Coast and in the Southern States and by rains and snows in the northern districts from the Rocky Mountains eastward. It will be followed by a change to the coldest weather of the season, the cold wave making its appearance in the Northwest Saturday or Sunday.

CANNOT IMPRISON FOR COURT COSTS.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 21.—The Criminal Court of Appeals in an opinion by Judge Doyle reaffirmed the costs in a case can not be imprisoned to serve it out at so much per day. It is held that under the common practice where a court has power to impose a fine it has power to enforce payment, but this does not carry with it authority to add to such fine the costs of the prosecution. The constitution prohibits imprisonment for debt, the court says; however, imprisonment for nonpayment of fines and penalties which are provided for by law is permitted in Oklahoma the law has not made costs a part of the penalties, therefore it takes the status of a debt. Should the law declare that costs were part of the penalty it would be constitutional the court says.

Money judiciously expended in publicity always pays good dividends. A case in point in northwestern Canada, which has been lavishly advertised during the past few years by the new railroads penetrating that region. Thousands of the first class American farmers were lured to that bleak region by glowing descriptions, although wheat is the only crop of importance that can be grown there. A fraction of the publicity of the resources of Oklahoma, a state which could exist from its own resources if a Chinese wall were built around it, would have brought thousands of immigrants and millions of money to help develop the untouched natural resources of the husky young state.

Physicians are often blamed by their patients, but taken as a whole the medical profession is extremely unselfish. Although it exists because of the ailments of the human race, and would pass out if there were no diseases to treat, it has been the constant thought and effort of the profession to devise way and means of preventing disease and improving the sanitary condition of the human race. As a result many of the worst plagues have been practically wiped out and most others can now be controlled by the medical men. The science of medicine has made wonderful advances during the past two decades, and still the profession is pushing forward exploring new fields.

Reports received from all over the state indicate that there is practically no interest in the Republican campaign. The few candidates who have made appointments have discussed state issues only, and these discussions have been heard by very small audiences. In many cases where meetings have been advertised they have failed to materialize, showing a less interest on the part of Republicans than has ever before been manifested in a state campaign in Oklahoma. Aside from the dissension in the regular Republican ranks and the agitation of the distinct Third Term party organization the Republican ticket is so handicapped by the fact that it is composed of very poor material. The candidates for senator, for corporation Commission, for justice of the criminal court of appeals and supreme court and the candidates for congressmen-at-large are entirely unknown. Probably not one voter in fifty could name the candidates for these offices. In fact the only republican candidates in the contest in the state this year that anybody ever heard of are Bird McGuire and Dick Morgan, and they are notoriously offensive even to a large proportion of the Republicans. There is not now the slightest evidence that it will be possible for the Harris-McGuire-Morgan machine to stir up any sort of interest in the state ticket and the uncertainty of the voter as to who will be voting for in casting his ballot for the Republican electors has already excited a distrust that will not be easily overcome.

About the best reason for defeating Wilson we have yet seen is in the McAlester News-Capital. Bro. Robbins insists that it really would be hard on the country to read of the marriage of each one of that bunch of girls. Think how much fuss the papers made over Alice Roosevelt and Nick Longworth. That argument is the soundest we have yet seen.

When the Republicans howl about soup houses in the days of Cleveland they might do well to remember that the same condition existed in the manufacturing districts in 1907, at a time when the party had been in power for years. If the Democrats were responsible for the first, who is to blame for the second, and what guarantees have we that the Republicans can keep off panics.

BODY OF A. H. EVANS
TAKEN TO DELAWARE

The body of A. H. Evans, the stranger who died here Saturday, was taken to his home at Delaware Sunday by L. T. Walters. It is understood that the interment will take place there.

This morning J. C. Thompson, a cousin of the wife of deceased was here. He stated that Mr. Evans had at one time edited a paper at Gordon and Prescott, Arkansas, and recently located at Delaware. Mrs. Evans is a daughter of Dr. B. C. Thompson, who at one time lived at Blossom, Texas, and is well known to several citizens of Ada.

SUDDEN DEATH OF W. T. ADMIRE

About 8:30 Sunday evening W. T. Admire died suddenly at his home in North Ada. He was apparently in his usual health, but as he was lying down on the bed, he was struck by the hand of the grim reaper and died in a few minutes. The funeral was held and the interment took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Admire was another of the early pioneers who aided in making this the sort of country it is today. He had lived in this county for almost twenty years and took part in all the many changes that have taken place since that time. He was a man whom all liked, and to those who only for a few hours before his untimely end were enjoying his genial good nature as he walked the streets, as well as to all who knew him, his death came as a painful shock. At the time of his death he was in a few days of 59 years of age.

The News extends its sincere sympathy to his family in their loss.

CARTER WILL SPEAK HERE TOMORROW

Congressman Carter will speak in Ada tomorrow without fail. He is scheduled to speak here at 7:30, but on account of the circus an effort will be made to have him reach Ada in time to address the crowd on the streets about 1:30. Just after the first performance of the show. He will speak at the Hollow corner where all will have ample opportunity to hear him.

Mr. Carter has always been popular in this section, and his many friends should see to it that he has a good turn out.

SENATOR STRAIN ADDRESSES VOTERS

Owing to the press of business matters, it was impossible for Hon. M. C. Crane of Texas to fill the date made for him at Ada by the committee, and his place was filled by Senator Strain, who addressed a fair sized crowd on the street this afternoon.

Mr. Strain is a democrat of the old school and his speech was to the point and of a nature to inspire the boys to shuck off their coats and go to work to roll up a heavy majority two weeks hence.

From here he went to Atoka where he was bidden for the evening.

BUY YOUR COAL NOW AND SAVE MONEY

On account of wishing to keep our ice service good so that you will get your ice in good time on the warm days, we have decided to sell our coal at about cost for a while so as to keep our men and teams busy during what cool days we have, so that we will not have to reduce our ice delivery service, order now and we will deliver to you as we can before the cool weather sets in. Remember that we handle the very best coal, there is many poor mines in a district that is supposed to be good. We buy only from the best and where they prepair it best, there is a fire clay in all mines in this state, the least bit of fire clay in coal will cause it to clink, the fire clay will get into all coal that is mined by the blasting process, we buy only machine mined coal which is the only process that will insure no fire clay, in mining with machines there is a roof and a floor left of coal and there is no way for it to get in, machine mined coal goes on the market at a much higher price than blasted coal, but we have always thought that our customers wanted the best and we have got it for them and sold it for about the same price some sells a low grade of coal for, also remember that we load our wagons with a fork which insures no slack, we can burn our slack under our boilers, and realize something out of it while it is worthless for stove use. We are the only coal dealers in town that has use for slack, what ever amount of slack you get in your coal is the real amount of shortage you have, as it is the same as no coal. We guarantee our weights, and you get 2000-pound tons from us. We have in stock Dewar Lump, and Rotary screened Nut and the best McAlester Lump. Call us up before you buy, we can save you in price and in quality of the coal. Phone 29.

ROOSEVELT PERMITTED TO RETURN HOME

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The advisability of permitting Colonel Roosevelt to depart Monday morning for Oyster Bay was debated at length Sunday and not until after his physicians had held a consultation late in the evening did they decide definitely that he might do so. He will leave for New York at 8:08 a. m. Although Colonel Roosevelt's condition was described as normal throughout the day it was learned that his wound had bled considerably and that he was suffering from nervous exhaustion.

The ex-president's physicians insisted that both of these developments were to be expected and that there was in them no cause for alarm. The bleeding, it was explained by Dr. Alexander Lambert, necessarily accompanied the discharge of serum, which is part of the healing process. Dr. Lambert also said that any patient who had been in bed for a week would suffer from nervous exhaustion and that Colonel Roosevelt needed only to have absolute rest.

"I wish you would emphasize the fact," said Dr. Lambert, "that Colonel Roosevelt is getting on well, but that any patient who has been in bed as long as he will suffer from some degree of nervous exhaustion. If Colonel Roosevelt is kept perfectly quiet, it will be safe for his to take the trip."

W. S. Farmer, a prominent attorney of Atoka, was an Ada visitor today. Mr. Farmer and W. T. Cox were old time friends in Texas.

Big Rush of Cotton at Ardmore.

Ardmore, Ok., Oct. 20.—Although this was Sunday, it was a busy day with cotton. The compress ran all day and the public weigher was busy during the morning. Many farmers who could not get to the scales Saturday remained over until Sunday, while others drove back to their homes. The receipts for the season are over 22,000 bales.

New Industrial Material.

As the result of many years of experimenting in England, a new substitute for hard rubber, gutta percha and leather has been announced. It is a product of seaweed. The new material is said to be especially useful in the electrical industries, being a noninflammable insulation of high dielectric strength, proof against heat, cold, oils and weather.

Cole's Hot Blast Draft on top of the fire burns the coal from the top—burns the gas, which is wasted with all other stoves. The force of this down draft forces the heat to the base which is made of steel—cannot burn out—and heats the floor.

Thousands of testimonials have been written regarding the base heating qualities of

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The ideal heating stove is one which radiates all the heat thrown off from the fuel—into the rooms—instead of letting it go up the chimney.

The durable heater is the one which will withstand the severe use, year after year, which a heating stove is necessarily subjected to. Sheet steel is the quickest radiator of heat and is used as radiating surface only in Cole's Hot Blast heater. Wherever the fuel comes in contact with the linings—only first quality gray cast iron is used.

Cast iron withstands the wear of the heat from active combustion better than any other material, and the large, sensitive, sheet metal body and base radiate all the heat into the rooms.

Burns Soft Coal, Slack Lignite, Hard Coal, Wood and lighter fuel.

STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 19.—When the old saying about everything being fair in love and war originated press agents were an unknown quantity. Had they been known then the saying would surely have included "and theatrical advertising." Oscar Hammerstein has the reputation of holding rather liberal views upon the subject of the fairness of theatrical advertising, but he has evidently come to the conclusion that the line must be drawn somewhere. He had no objections to the various yarns which the press agent of Miss Felice Lyne, the new prima donna discovered by him, saw fit to circulate to arouse public interest in the singer, so long as they were kept within reasonable bounds, but when the young prima donna entertained the reporters upon her arrival in this country with a sensational story as to how Mr. Hammerstein had "grossly insulted" her and how she had slapped him, he considered this a step beyond the bounds of advertising ethics and promptly filed a libel suit for $100,000 against Miss Felice Lyne. No matter what the curse of the libel suit may be, the end sought by the singer—extensive advertising—has already been accomplished. His friends are quietly speculating what Mr. Hammerstein is going to do with the $100,000—when he gets them.

The Pulitzer School of Journalism at Columbia University has been formally opened and the attendance is already larger than was anticipated. The students come from all parts of the United States and many of them have had from one to four years' experience on various newspapers. There is no record that the students have selected the color for their school banner or their college yell. It is sincerely hoped by the friends of the institution that the color to be selected will not be yellow.

The present political campaign is not without its interesting and even sensational features, and, moreover, these features are by no means always supplied by the candidates on the National ticket. The Democratic campaign managers went a long way toward sensationalism by establishing a chamber of horrors exhibition with a view of giving an object lesson in political economy. In the "Chamber of Women" they exhibited dressed dummies with every piece of their wearing apparel labeled to show the tariff upon the goods and their cost, as an argument for a down-revision of the tariff. To answer this implied argument the Woman's Department of the National Republican Committee has decided to form a silk-stocking club, all its members to wear silk hosiery. This is intended to show as a Republican argument that no where else in the world would it be possible for women in moderate circumstances to do this. The club will be started in a few days with an exhibition of silk hosiery in the Women's Department, and it is promised there will be more colors, more varieties and sizes and a greater variety of prices than any one woman has ever seen before. All women who wish to join the Republican Silk Stocking club and wear sheer silk hosiery as a mark of good Republicanism, can do so by sending their names to the Woman's Department of the Republican National Committee in this city. As the silk stocking argument would fall flat unless freely brought to the attention of the public, it is predicted that short dresses will become extremely popular among the members of the Silk Stocking club and liberal displays of silk hosiery a matter of everyday occurrence. No protest has been heard so far from the male elements of any of the parties.

More than 800 boys attending Public School No. 19, in Fourteenth street, near First avenue, went on a strike the other day, when they learned that their beloved principal, James B. T. Demarest, was to be transferred to a school in Harlem. Mr. Demarest was extremely popular with the boys in his school, because he took a great personal interest in inter-scholastic athletics and encouraged athletic sports among the boys of his school to such good purpose that School No. 19 could boast of some of the strongest athletic teams among the schools of the city. Louis Geitner, the captain of the basket ball team, who has evidently been a careful reader of labor news, organized the strike, and by a clever ruse, even induced the boys of another school in the neighborhood to go on a sympathetic strike. Only by the most determined efforts of Mr. Demarest, whose transfer means for him a promotion, could the boys be induced to return to school and to call the strike off.

That is reason enough why you should buy your ticket that way. Your trip will tell you why.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

old and his sister 13, when she ran away from home because her mother had spanked her. The girl found work as a servant in a household where she remained until she married. She never made an attempt to communicate with her parents and her brother, and her parents died some years ago in the belief that she was dead. A short time ago she ran across the trail of her brother and after an exchange of letters a meeting was arranged at Schenectady. McKeon immediately recognized his sister owing to her strong resemblance to their deceased mother.

Among the guests at the Waldorf-Astoria last week was a man, apparently in opulent circumstances, who, not so many years ago, had been one of the bell boys in that great hostelry. Early reminiscences die hard, as the saying is. While enjoying his after-dinner siesta in the smoking room, the former bell-hop would jump up every time he heard the call bell, and it was this automatic response to a well-known signal which finally induced the man to tell the story of his life. He admitted he had once been a bell-hop in the Waldorf-Astoria, but was now rich enough to stop at that hotel and give $1 tips to the present bell-hops. He said he had made a fortune in promoting mining schemes in Canada.

There is a shipyard in Raritan Bay, on the Jersey coast, near Sandy Hook, which is owned and conducted by a woman, Mrs. Edith De Witt Vreeland. When her husband, the owner of the shipyard, died about a year ago and left the property to her, she decided to continue the business. She worked and studied hard to learn all the details of the business, but the ship owners had a prejudice against a woman's work in the ship-building and repairing line. By her perseverance, however, she finally convinced a few of them of her ability to turn out good work, and now her business is flourishing.

NOV. 2 WILSON

AND MARSHALL DAY

To the Democrats of Oklahoma:

The National Democratic Committee has designated Nov. 2nd, 1912, as Wilson and Marshall Day, and requested that the democratic organizations in each state of our great union hold as many meetings as possible on the afternoon and evening of that day, at which time a special message will be read from the next president, the Honorable Woodrow Wilson. To this end we most earnestly request that all democrats in the state of Oklahoma arrange precinct meetings in the afternoon, and such meetings as may be advisable at night in keeping with this call, and that you impress upon all your friends that November 2nd, 1912, will go down in history as Wilson and Marshall Day, the day upon which the hosts of democracy of America will sound the battle call that will mean a glorious democratic victory on the 5th of November.

TOM C. HARRILL,
State Chairman.
HUBERT L. BOLEN, Chm. Dem. Cam. Committee.

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF RETAIL MERCHANTS

To Be Held in St. Louis, Nov. 19-21, 1912—Headquarters Planters Hotel.

President Taft, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Hon. William Jennings Bryan, and Hon. Champ Clark have been invited to address this convention.

The following set topics have been selected and speakers upon these subjects assigned in part, as follows:

Address—Socialistic Tendencies—Hon. L. C. Boyle, Ex-Attorney General of Kansas, Kansas City, Mo.

Discussion—Parcels Post. The Retail Dealer—the Probable Effect of the New Parcels Post Law on His Business.

This question will be discussed pro and con. In order that we may hear both sides of the question we have invited Senator Jonathan Bourne, the author of the bill, to speak to the convention. We will also ask a representative of the National Grange to participate in this discussion. In addition to the above, representative of retail organizations, manufacturers and the American League of Associations will also be asked to participate in this discussion.

Address—The Country Newspaper and the Retail Merchant—W. H. Miller, editor of Ottawa Free Trade—Ottawa, Illinois.

Address—National Trade Commission and Amendments to the Sherman Law—F. H. Freericks, Atty., Cincinnati, Ohio. Chas. Nagel, Sec'y. Commerce and Labor.

Address—The Trade Press and the Retail Merchant—To be supplied.

Address—The Future of the Small Town and Community Development—E. C. Hole, Chicago.

Address—A Message from Canada—E. M. Trowern, Dominion Secretary, Retail Merchants Association of Canada.

Address—A National Pure Advertising Law—By a representative of the National Ad Club.

Address—The Relation Between the Wholesaler and the Retailer—To be supplied.

Address—The Mail Order Menace—Nels Darling, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Address—The Traveling Man and the Retailer—Representative of the U. C. T.

Address—The Relation Between the Manufacturer, Wholesaler Jobber, and the Retailer—To be supplied.

The National Federation of Retail Merchants particularly desires the attendance of everyone who is interested in the welfare, future success and preservation of the business of the retail merchant and the small man in business.

We especially invite to attend this meeting not only representatives from state and national retail associations of every kind, but we cordially invite representatives from Commercial Clubs, Editors of the Trade Press and Country and Daily Newspapers, who are interested in our cause.

Traveling Men's Associations and representatives from Wholesale, Jobbing and Manufacturing organizations.

In other words, this is to be a National Retailers Conservation Congress. You are invited, along with all the friends of the Retail Merchants.

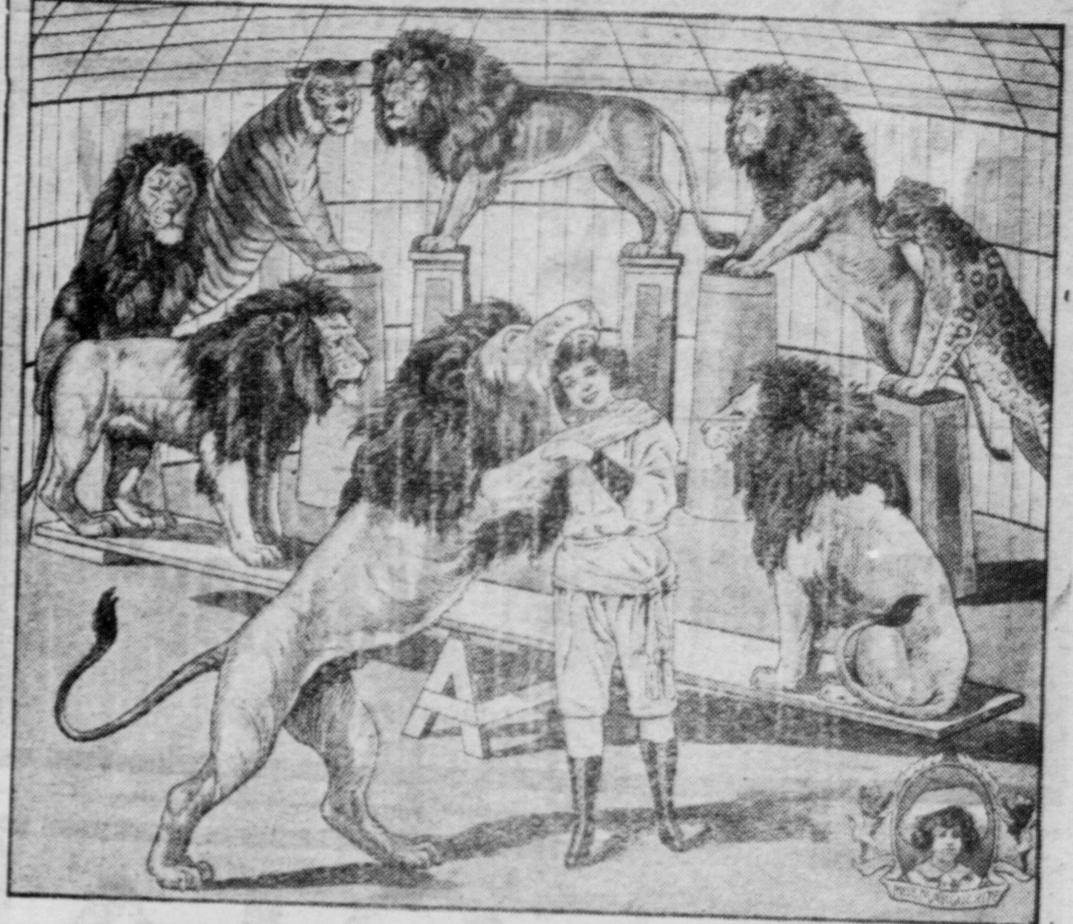

Special railroad rates have been applied for and will be announced later. Ask your local agent about these rates. Respectfully,

J. R. Moorehead, Sec'y., Lexington, Missouri.
